

CCI Releasing Presents

FAILING BETTER NOW

Learning What It Means to Grow Up

Winner 'Best Acting Ensemble'
-Fort Lauderdale Film Festival 2009

Winner 'Best Romantic Comedy Feature Film'
-NY Independent Film & Video Festival 2009

Winner 'Grand Jury Prize for World Cinema Dramatic'
-Amsterdam Film Festival 2010

Winner 'Best Original Music'
-Charlotte Film Festival 2010

EXECUTIVE PRODUCERS PETER SCHELFHAUDT, PAZIT LEVITAN, DEVIN SULLIVAN, AGLIKA DOTCHEVA AND KEREN ATZMON
PRODUCER LIA MAYER-SOMMER WRITERS KEREN ATZMON AND JENNIE ALLEN SOUND DESIGN CHEN HARPAZ
DIRECTOR OF PHOTOGRAPHY OFER ZIMCHI EDITORS KEREN ATZMON AND SHIMRIT 'SHISH'RONEN PRODUCTION DESIGNER DIANA WHITTEN COMPOSER ROY COOPERVASSER
PRINCIPAL CAST LINDSAY MICHELLE NADER, JUSTIN ALLEN, JOYCE DEWITT, JULIE MCNIVEN, MEITAL DOHAN, GAVIN BELLOUR

“An entertaining watch, particularly for any city-dweller who has ever tried to make it on their own.”

-Jack Diablo EU Jacksonville

“..infused with a quirkiness & honesty that is missing from typical Hollywood fare.”

-Santa Cruz Film Festival

Mia, a flaky failed writer with a penchant for lying, loses her perfect sister’s cat. While she’s looking, she meets and falls for a surprisingly sincere aspiring rockstar who joins her on her wild search through the East Village and challenges her to take on writing the story of her own life.

Can she get it together before she has to move back in with her mother in New Jersey and become a florist?

‘Failing Better Now’ is about growing up at the age of thirty (or at least realizing that you have to start somewhere). It’s about the absurdity and necessity of trying to follow your dream... because even if it is a cliché, it’s your life.

